CSEE 20th Anniversary Conference for
2013 Environmental Education: Review and Prospect

We are very pleased to invite Environmental educators and scientists to the forthcoming CSEE 2013 EE conference. This conference will be held at the National Taichung University of Education, Taichung City, Taiwan, on 1–3 November, 2013. Taichung, the central of the Taiwan, is the best living environment in Taiwan and is firmly oriented towards an ever-increasing internationalization. We are sure that you will enjoy the vigor, beauty, modernity, and diversity of Taichung.

The theme of the Conference is "Environmental Education in Taiwan：Review and Prospect ". We hope that the academic groups, governments, enterprises, NGOs and the general public across the country can be meaningfully and truly integrated at the conference through the active exchange of ideas, research findings, and expertise.

We sincerely believe that the CSEE 2013 Conference will be a place where you can share your research interests, build relationships with your colleagues, and enjoy Taiwan. We look forward to meeting you in Taichung City in November 2013.

Presentation Instructions

1. for Oral Presentation Session Chairperson

1. The chairperson is the person to give suggestions and conclusion of his oral presentation session.

2. The chairperson is requested to confirm attendance with the conference staff in charge of the session room.

3. The chairperson is requested to limit presentations within the time allotted

   - All presentations should begin on time.

   - A bell should be rung to remind each presenter when only three minutes remain in the time allotted for the presentation.

   - If a presenter fails to show up, the allocated time should be effectively used for additional discussion or recess. The session will resume with the next paper at the scheduled time. The set timetable should NOT be changed.

4. Conference staff will be assigned to every session room to assist speakers and the chairperson in operating the computer. Should any problems or technical difficulties arise, please request help from the conference staff.

2. for Oral Presentation Presenters

1. A projector, a pointing device, and a desktop computer with Windows XP and Office 2007 will be provided for each presentation room. If additional or special equipment is needed, please email a request to csee@mail2000.com.tw one month before the conference.

2. Registration should be confirmed before the start of the session.

3. Each presentation is allotted 15 minutes. We recommend that all presenters spend about 1 minute to introduce themselves. The main presentation duration should be 10 minutes, with the remaining 4 minutes allotted for answering questions from the audience.

4. If a presenter fails to show up, the chairperson will call a discussion or a recess for that time slot and resume the session with the next paper at the scheduled time.

5. Three minutes before the end of each presentation time slot, the chairperson will ring a bell to remind presenters of the remaining time.

3. for Poster Presentation

1. Each poster should measure 110cm (height) x 80cm (width).
